I do give and bequeath to the Town of Windham, in the County of Rockingham, and State of New Hampshire, it being my native town, Three Thousand (3,000) Dollars, to found and perpetuate a Free Public Library, for the use of the Citizens of said Town of Windham, to be called the Nesmith Library, upon the following conditions:—

First. The Town shall, at a legal town meeting of its inhabitants duly called for the purpose, vote and make record thereof with sufficient legal forms, to accept the same upon the conditions and for the purpose, and upon the plan herein set forth.

Second. Shall pay to the Trustees hereinafter named, or their successors, as soon as the said three thousand dollars shall have been paid over to said Town by my Executors, Two Thousand dollars thereof for immediate expenditures by said Trustees in books for said Library, and shall ever thereafter, annually, pay to said Trustees and their successors, the annual sum of sixty dollars, each and every year forever, being the interest upon the other thousand dollars which said Town may hold, use, loan or appropriate according to its pleasure, the said Town having at said town meeting passed a vote and made due record thereof, thus annually forever, thereafter promising to pay said annual sum of sixty dollars to said Trustees, each and every successive year, forever, the object being to relieve the Trustees from the care of the money, and to make the income of the $1000 fixed and certain for the perpetuation of the Library, and third, said town shall provide, support and furnish continually, a suitable room or rooms or building, with usual and proper accommodations for said Library; shall keep suitable insurance upon the Library, and pay for the services of a Librarian, free of expense of all kinds to my said Trustees and to the income aforesaid.

They shall receive of the Town the said two thousand dollars and expend the same in the purchase of books to commence and found said Library, and shall thereafter annually receive of said town said annual sum of sixty dollars, and shall annually expend the same in the purchase of books for the annual enlargement of the same. They shall also appoint from time to time, a suitable Librarian, and fix the days and hours of taking and returning books, and shall make all needful rules and regulations pertaining to the use and preservation of the books, not, however, thereby to exclude any citizen of said town of suitable responsibility, male or female, of proper education and age, from the use of said Library, without charge, other than for damage to books or fine for detention under the rules and regulations.
