Brick Orders Are Now Closed

*Chelsea Paige,
Digital Literacy
Librarian*

A tremendous thank you to everyone who has ordered an engraved brick for the walkway outside the Nesmith Library front entrance, from those who submitted orders at our 2021 Sesquicentennial Celebration, to those who responded to our last chance call for brick orders this year, 2023. We are very excited to see all of the lovely new inscriptions along with the delightful variety of support represented in the bricks from 1997 when this building was built. We will create a new map to help you locate your bricks when the work is all finished. Watch for updates from us about the construction work and our services, expected to be through April and May.

Part of the funding for this project is from the Town of Windham, as well as fundraising through our Buy A Brick campaign with the Friends of the Library of Windham, and generous donations from businesses and individuals.

If you have questions about this project, please contact us by visiting us at 8 Fellows Road, calling 603-432-7154, or emailing us at info@nesmithlibrary.org.

Thank you!

March Adult Programming

Maria Schroeter,
Adult Collection Development /
Adult Programming Librarian

March is here, which means spring is getting closer and closer!

New Books

We've got some great new titles coming out this month. On March 7, Sarah Penner, author of The Lost Apothecary, is back with The London Séance Society. Hang the Moon, a novel by Jeannette Walls, whose memoir, The Glass Castle, was a bestseller is out on March 28. For you animal lovers, The Other Family Doctor: A Veterinarian Explores What Animals Can Teach Us About Love, Life, and Mortality is out on March 14. All of these are already listed in our catalog and ready for you to put on hold. If you need help putting an item on hold, just give us a call and we can walk you through it or do it for you.

Nesmith Library Book Group

Due to FLOW's big book sale (come check it out starting March 9!), this month the Nesmith Library Book Group will meet on Wednesday, March 15 at 6:00 p.m., which is a week later than usual. This month we've been reading A Man Called Ove by Frederik Backman. Currently, the book group is not accepting new members, but when space becomes available, I'll open it up again. If you would like to be on the wait list, send me an email!

Can I Get You a Drink?

Stories of Female Poisoners

You are cordially invited to register for a one-of-a-kind virtual cocktail hour! "Can I Get You A Drink? Stories of Female Poisoners" is taking place on Zoom on Wednesday, March 8 at 6:00 p.m. Presenter and investigator, Erin E.

Moulton, will email five drink recipes to those who have registered, and you can choose to make a beverage at home (hold the arsenic!) to enjoy during this virtual Zoom presentation. Non-alcoholic options are available. While we sip, Erin will bring us through historical records and weave together the lives of five female poisoners, and we'll find out whose story matches each of the beverage recipes. Was it murder or misunderstanding? You decide!

Erin E. Moulton writes books and tracks dead people. As a genealogist, slipping into old records and exploring past lives is something she has done for herself and for others for over 14 years. Erin is a member of the Association of Professional Genealogists, the New Hampshire Historical Society, the New Hampshire Society of Genealogists, and more. She serves on the landmark committee for the Black Heritage Trail of New Hampshire and is a part-time reference librarian at the Derry Public Library. She has written several books, mostly for children. You can find her online at www.erinemoulton.com.

From Tribe to Nation: A Musical Journey Through the History of Ireland

On Monday, March 13 at 6:00 p.m, Irish humorist and folksinger Tom O'Carroll will visit us to share "From Tribe to Nation: A Musical Journey Through the History of Ireland." This presentation traces the history of the Irish people from the Stone Age to the present. Drawing on archaeological data, historical records, as well as music and song, Tom explores the broad social and cultural themes of conflict and identity that occur through the island's history. Throughout his presentation, Tom performs various songs, tunes, and little known anecdotes that bring to life the story of the Irish. Refreshments will be served.

Dublin-born folklorist, folk-singer, and instrumentalist Tom O'Carroll brings a wealth of stories, humor, wit, and history to his performances. He has played at concerts, festivals, colleges, libraries, and pubs all over the U.S. and Canada, as well as his native Ireland, including a stint for one month in Seoul, South Korea. Whether playing a plaintive air on the tin whistle, or singing and playing rousing traditional songs to the accompaniment of the guitar or the bodhrán (Irish drum), Tom will captivate all with his lively program about Irish culture. For more information on Tom and his programs, visit his website <http://www.tomocarroll.com>.

Stuffed Chick Craft

Join us on Wednesday, March 29 at 6:00 p.m. when we'll be using our Creativebug digital resource to create a hand-stitched project—a sweet stuffed chick! The egg-shaped chicks are a cinch to stitch and stuff with just a few rows of sewing. Expert instructor and designer Kata Golda will take us through the project step-by-step. We'll be making one chick, but with the skills you learn, you'll be able to whip up a batch at home and display them in an egg carton (not included) for whimsical spring décor. All supplies will be provided to make one chick. Nesmith Library card holders only. Register early because space is limited.

Adult programs are for ages 18 and up (unless otherwise noted), and registration is required. To register for these programs, please visit our Events Calendar at <https://nesmithlibrary.org/calendar/month>.

For more information on any of these programs, or if you have any questions, please contact Maria at mschroeter@nesmithlibrary.org or call the library at 603-432-7154.
