Reports:

Flow report:
• FLOW is working on a number of activities. They will plan to talk to the fire chief to see what will be possible this year for the Strawberry Festival - perhaps doing shortcake kits where people place orders in advance. The issue will be the pandemic protocols for making food and slicing strawberries.
• S. Brikiatis- talked to FLOW president, Michell Tieland about what planning for summer reading programs. This may include an outdoor book fair.
  • The library is also planning outdoor-only summer activities. We will add inside events if/when possible.

Director's report:
• Statistics:
  • Library year-end statistics 2020: we ended the year down 33% for circulation and down 55% for traffic. This gives an idea of how much the building is used for things other than circulation.
• Lighting:
  • The LED conversion project is complete except for three cans which are on back order.
  • The project should be done by the end of March.
  • Also asked town's electrical contractor to take a look at building to see if we can add exterior lights over multipurpose room windows to shed light over outside sidewalk.
  • He said it is possible and he can mount one over each of the smaller windows.
• Performance reviews for staff:
  • These are near completion with one remaining.
• Budget update:
  • There were no questions about the solar project or the operating budget at the deliberative session.
• End of year recap:
  • We did return money left from the personnel line to the town of about $66,000.
    • This was due to an open position, two retirements and almost no sick or vacation time to fill in.
  • We also returned about $20,000 on the operating budget side.
    • This was about what we estimated.
    • We did not spend as much in electrical as expected.
• And we had a hold on buying for about two months because publishers had halted production.

• Summer reading:
  • M. Stith asked if were we able to rent a tent.
    • We are waiting for notification from the rental company that the tents are treated for flame retardation. Otherwise, that is ready to be contracted.
    • We got a quote for 7 weeks for a 30x40 pole tent so that we can handle inclement weather to do unperson programming outside.
  • We plan to continue similar programming as we do now, but outside.
  • We launched campaign last week to pick a mascot from children's submitted photos of pets.

• COVID update:
  • Numbers are dropping on Covid in town back to pre Thanksgiving numbers.
  • We will hold a staff meeting on Friday to talk about reopening.
    • My suggestion is to open next Wednesday with a soft opening and put in the notice in paper on Friday.
    • The staff feels that we should do limited browsing and curbside pickup
    • We would also like to add in Sundays in April, just for curbside until things start to change.
      • We will probably continue to do curbside in future as many people prefer it.
  • Discussion re opening:
    • Question: will new strains create a problem?
      • We did get new surgical masks from staff so that we can also double mask
    • We plan to set limits to browsing, half an hour, no seating, and the children's room is going to be closed
  • Question from M. Branoff on status of recruiting for Kevin's replacement.
    • She started yesterday, an internal promotion, former head of tech services for GMILCS?
      • Sarah?

_Treasurer's Report:_

• The library remains in compliance with RSA 32:7.
  • This money will be spent over the course of the year.

• Should we write something as a board that we are behind the warrant article as it does not state support from the Trustees in the document?
